Re: Letter of Recommendation for David Nimer

Dear Members of the Committee on Character and Fitness:

I am writing to recommend David Nimer for admission to the practice of law. David is a hard worker and has demonstrated a real passion for legal practice. He is smart, disciplined, focused, fearless, and a strong leader. I appreciated his insight and wit.

David was a student in the Civil Litigation Clinic in summer 2022. I was a Clinical Fellow at ASU who taught a seminar class on litigation and supervised students as they represented clients through the Clinic. Most students are very cautious representing clients when they are new to the Clinic, but David was both assertive and dynamic. He never hesitated to ask questions, worked collaboratively with his colleagues, and put an extraordinary amount of effort in his casework and client representation.

One thing that struck me about David is that he is a skilled and passionate advocate. David demonstrated this in drafting a stirring and persuasive Motion for Summary Judgment Response in a case of a sexually harassed employee. Not only did David draft a technically proficient response, but he used efficient and vivid detail in summarizing the case such that the facts popped from the page. He also had a knack for condensing arguments into concise and persuasive packages.

During Clinic, David demonstrated tremendous instincts and initiative as a litigator. David and his co-counsel approached a negotiation with a car dealership very diligently. Their preparation ultimately paid off as they secured a very favorable settlement for the client. I appreciated the initiative that David demonstrated throughout Clinic.

I have truly enjoyed working with David. He is a joy to talk to and always approaches his work with a positive and infectious attitude. He is a superb teammate, a dynamic mind, and certainly would be a valuable asset. Please let me know if you have any questions. You can contact me by email at t.myers@bathspa.ac.uk. Thank you.
