DUKE UNIVERSITY TRANSCRIPT GUIDE

CREDIT, ALL SCHOOLS: The Graduate and Professional Schools, except for the Divinity School, list credit in semester hours. Prior to 1969, credit for Trinity College of Arts & Sciences, the Pratt School of Engineering, and the Divinity School was recorded in semester hours. A semester-hour unit represents one lecture or recitation period of 50 minutes per week for a fifteen-week semester or its equivalent. Beginning Fall 1969, credit for Trinity, Pratt, and the Divinity School is listed in semester-courses.

NOTE: One semester-course credit unit is equivalent to four semester hours.

UNDERGRADUATE LOAD AND COURSE NUMBERING SYSTEM: Since 1969, the normal undergraduate load is four semester-course credits per semester. Full-time status requires three or more semester-course credits. For undergraduate matriculants from Fall 1969-Summer 1988, the graduation requirement was 32 semester-course credits; for matriculants in Fall 1988 and after, it is 34. From 1930-2012, introductory-level courses were numbered below 100; advanced-level courses were numbered 100 and above. Courses numbered 1-49 were primarily for first-year students; courses numbered 200-299 were primarily for seniors and graduate students. Effective Fall 2012, undergraduate (Trinity and Pratt), Graduate School, Nicholas School of the Environment, Sanford School of Public Policy, Divinity School, and Fuqua School of Business courses were renumbered. In the new numbering scheme, courses numbered at the 100 level and below are introductory courses; 200- and 300-level courses are above introductory; 400-level courses are advanced undergraduate, capstone-type courses typically taken by seniors; 500- and 600-level courses are graduate courses open to advanced undergraduates; courses numbered 700 and above are for graduate students only.

DUKE KUNSHAN UNIVERSITY: Beginning Summer 2014, Duke University offers graduate and professional degree programs and undergraduate semester programs at Duke Kunshan University in Kunshan, China. Credits and degrees are awarded through Duke University and are displayed as such on Duke University transcripts, with a notation indicating the coursework was taken through Duke Kunshan University.
